5. Terms and Conditions

- The Brave Foundation reserves the right to seek additional verification of applicants' submissions.
- Where a student either intends to change the circumstances of their study or experiences a change to their circumstances of study, as listed below, they must inform the Brave Foundation in writing at the earliest possible opportunity.
- The Brave Foundation will then determine on a case-by-case basis whether the scholarship will be cancelled and whether the recipient is required to return their scholarship funding, either in part or in full.

A 'change of circumstances' includes:

- deferring studies
- changing the course of study
- changing the institution of study
- incompleting the course of study
- unsuccessful application to study
- unsatisfactory academic progress
- ceasing to meet the eligibility requirements of the scholarship
- failing to return to study after an approved interruption to their scholarship purpose

The Brave Foundation reserves the right to cancel any scholarship and ask the recipient to return their scholarship funding, either in part or in full should:

- the recipient, or their agent, be found to have provided false or misleading information during or subsequent to the application process
- the recipient commit serious misconduct at their educational institution (serious misconduct may be determined by either the institution or the Brave Foundation)

Recipients agree to the periodic assessment of their chosen study/course as covered by the scholarship. This is to ensure that the recipient remains eligible for the scholarship throughout their relevant study period.

6. Parent, Guardian or Authorised Representative Declaration

I declare that the information submitted in this application for support from the Brave Foundation is true and correct.

I authorise the Brave Foundation to make appropriate enquiries in regard to my submission, such as reference-checking and validation of the submission.

I acknowledge that the submission of any incorrect or misleading information to the Brave Foundation may result in the termination of any scholarship and in that circumstance I will be required to repay any scholarship funds.

I understand that the decision of Brave Foundation regarding the scholarship is final and that the scholarship is subject to the Terms and Conditions.

If I receive the scholarship, I give consent for Brave Foundation to disclose agreed-to personal information, not including contact details, for publicity purposes.
