Digital Delivery Referral Guidelines – Service Providers

About Brave Foundation and SEPT Program

In the Support Expecting and Parenting Teens (SEPT) digital delivery program, Expecting and Parenting Teens are connected to a virtual mentor who assists the young parent by developing a pathway plan toward their goals. The core component of the program is a focus on the participant exploring education and pathways to employment and reducing barriers to these pathways. The Virtual Mentor provides general support and guidance, help navigating services and systems including practical support such as completing departmental paperwork and connecting the young parents with relevant services and support suited to the E&PT's personalised needs and goals.

Virtual mentoring refers to a process of mentoring where a professional mentor engages with participants through means of virtual communication such as internet-based tools such as e-mails, chats, social media networks, virtual platforms (i.e., Zoom, Teams), and telephone. The purpose of the Virtual Mentor role is to provide support to rural/remote/isolated participants via virtual delivery. A Virtual Brave mentor will hold one on one meetings with the E&PT's throughout the Brave Pathway Plan. The voluntary program is offered short term till July 2021.

The Brave Foundation is an Australian not-for-profit charity that aims to equip expecting and parenting teens with resources, referral, and education opportunities to facilitate happy, healthy, and skilled families over time.

The criteria for eligibility are:

- Age (under 19)
- Receiving Parenting Payments (started receiving at 19 or under)
- Have access to a telephone and/or internet-based platforms
- Receiving Income Support Payments (started receiving at 19 or under)
- Be residing in a rural remote area, or be experiencing isolation due to other complexities (e.g. mental health)

Families, carers, or friends can refer a young person to Brave Foundation. The young person will need to be aware of the referral. Once the referral is received, a mentor will contact the young person within 24 to 48 hours.

Once a referral is received it is reviewed by the Brave team or mentor within 48 hours and the pathway is determined. Our aim is to offer a space in the SEPT Program to young parents, however at times our mentors are at capacity and referrals will be placed on a waitlist until a place becomes available. We aim to offer some feedback to the referrer or connect the young parent to support services in their regions if we are unable to assist them.
